1. This is an application made by 8 applicants for grant of bail. The applicants are shown as accused in C.R.No.16/2006 registered by the Vikramgarh police station for alleged offences under Sections 307, 363, 324, 147, 148 & 149 of IPC. Two persons are said to have suffered injuries i.e. Sandip Patil and Balu Atkari. Perusal of the injury certificate indicates that though there are several injuries sufferred,

Doctor has opined that they are simple in nature. There is a cross case which has been filed at earlier point of time by one Jagan Pawar. It appears that there are 2 groups in the village and the election was scheduled to be held on the next day. According to the statement of Jagan Pawar the injured person alongwith 2 others attacked their car with stones and in that assault his wife had sufferred the head injury. This cross complaint is recorded at C.R.No.15/2006 in the said police station. APP confirmed that in fact the car of Jagan Pawar was found in a damaged condition. Similarly the wife of Jagan Pawar also sufferred head injury. Taking an over all view of the matter, as also taking into account that the persons of the other side have also been granted bail, I am inclined to grant bail subject to some conditions. It is therefore, directed that pending their trial in pursuance of C.R.No.I-16/2006 registered by the Vikramgarh police station, the applicants may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.10,000/- each with one surety each in the like amount subject to the condition that they shall report to the investigating officer of Vikramgarh police station once a week on every Monday till the charge-sheet is filed and thereafter in a fortnight on every 1st and 3rd Mondays till the trial is concluded. Application stands disposed of. Authenticated copy of this order be provided to the parties.
